When You Go North

Avail yourself of stop-over at Washington. It is most delightful there in the spring. If your destination is

Pittsburgh, Cleveland or Chicago

by all means take the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, the shortest and most interesting, besides the most picturesque and historic route in Eastern America. The route from Washington to

Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and New England

is the famous "Royal Blue Line," requiring only Five Hours to New York on the "Royal Special" and "Royal Limited" trains. Trains leave Washington "Every Odd Hour" during the day.

Excellent Equipment

Modern Service

Ask the Ticket Agent in Richmond to route you "Baltimore and Ohio Railroad," or write GEO. A. ORR, Southern Passenger Agent, 109 Granby St., Norfolk, Va.
